Coaching with Wade

Jesus was a Hebrew. He employed a Hebrew (lamad) style of training, easily compared to coaching. The Hebrew language uses one root word (lamad) for the English words "to teach" and "to learn." So, only when the student is actually doing what the teacher taught, the teacher has succeeded. Here teacher and follower connect information with implementation. Both are aware of the danger of "over-informing"—that information without implementation will not bring change. Jesus modeled this (lamad) approach with the expectation that we would follow it. It's foundational to developing growth-centered relationships.

Wade's coaching principles and practices were developed from the one-on-one coaching principles and practices he discovered in the life of Jesus. It is all about self-discovery. Wade will steer you through developing SMART Goals (Specific, Measureable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-specific), overcoming obstacles, identifying resources, and determining action steps that get you where you want to go.

Coaching with Wade can be done person-to-person, via Skype, or by phone. Here are 10 common issues that others have successfully worked through.

1. I want to hear from God for myself, and I have been in this place for years.
2. I have dreams that I don't understand, and I want to interpret them.
3. I want a better job with more money, and I think something is missing.
4. I attended a conference but I don't know how to apply what was taught.
5. I want to grow and but I don't know where to start.
6. I hear great sermons at church, but I soon forget them.
7. I have some habits to overcome that I believe retard my spiritual growth.
8. I sense that I am being controlled by my pastor and church leaders.
9. I want some help in cleaning up my life and renewing my mind.
10. I want to examine and develop new relational skills.

Wade's work with individuals and groups is based on "5 relational values."

1. He builds open relationships with each person
2. He values the God-given heart's desires of each person
3. He assists in developing a unique plan with each person
4. He supports the action steps taken by each person
5. He maintains confidentiality and honors each person

You will learn the “3 parts” of prophetic processing.

In Burning Ear you will learn about the times and seasons of fulfillment. Here’s a scripture that brings hope for future fulfillment. Until the time that his word came to pass, the word of the LORD tested him (Psalm 105:19).

Understanding Dreams

God does speak—now one way, now another— though man may not perceive it. In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men as they slumber in their beds (Job 33:14-18).

The simple truth is that we sleep about one-third of our lives. The question is, “Is there purpose and meaning to the dreams you have?” Are there symbolic meanings in your dreams that point to things that God wants you to know? What about this?

Wade is well-known for teaching and coaching people through understanding their dreams. When Wade coaches you the Holy Spirit will lead you to understand the way God is speaking to you.

You will learn how to develop and keep a dream journal that you can refer to. When Wade is your coach, he brings all of his life experience and resources together for your benefit.

The Quest

The Quest is a unique opportunity for a handful of people who are free to go with Wade into new life giving adventures. Quest people get coaching, training, travel, and fun. They have time and resources to travel with Wade to destinations designed to bring fresh insights for their personal transformation.

The Quest is for people who sense God leading them to new places, to get away, to begin an inward journey. Several times in the Bible people are called to get away, to go to another place. It is in these "away places" that God meets them intimately, to begin a New Future.

The Quest is for people who feel that they are beginning a new season. There's a longing for more life with God and one another that calls to them. Your new season begins with letting go of the old to grab the new thing that God is doing with you.

In this place of discovery and change God is saying; "Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland." (Isaiah 43:18, 19)

This is for you. Get going!
